Some say she's the luxe life. Exuberant. Snappy. Bright. Chatty. Sunlit. Lush. Passionfruit. Blueberries. Sparkling. Refined. Considered. Dry. And frankly, refreshing.

Yowza! This character's outspoken. Bursting with opinions. Arrives with a floral bouquet. Hoots. Honks. Hops. Charismatic. Honey. Bombastic. Citrus. Distinguished. Tang. Then closes the deal guaranteeing your thirst thoroughly quenched.

This'd surely be a miner's delight. Substantial. Satisfying. Deserved. Malt. Forged. Caramel. Bitter. Chocolate. Rich. Worthwhile. Smooth and dry, earner of a knowing smile.

This number is not what he seems. A bit of a trickster really. Smooth. Firm. Dark. Light. Bitter. Sweet. Coffee. Intricate. Chocolate. Subterfuge. You've been warned.

Desweat your brow. Lawns mown. Yoga stretched. Hay bailed. Innings had. Here's the pils reward. Clean citrus. Wood chips. Unexpected honeyed hop notes. Ahhh.

Double the hops, half the tipsy. The preferred beer of band practices. Ensures the rhythm section stays in time. Actual crispness. Utter freshness. Let's go!

MAXIMUS IPA

The fiercely floral and fragrant hop, known as the earth wolf by the ancients, has been cunningly tamed with a soft, rich, maltiness. Please drink respectfully.

RICE LAGER

Rice is nice! Sensational in sushi and legendary in lagers. This lager is so dry sumo wrestlers drink it after a shower instead of using a towel. Fresher than tuna sashimi at the toyosu fish markets. The beer Hattori Hanzo would have drunk after a long day being a ninja.

HALLERTAU HAZY PALE ALE

This beer is rather neat, we use a bunch of Canterbury wheat with some barley too. A luscious fruit salad of NZ hops makes for 100% local unfiltered deliciousness. Would you look at the time, it's quaff o'clock!

GRANNY SMITH
APPLE CIDER

Crunch. Clean. Crisp. Refreshing. Bite. Blue skies. Cut grass. Good times. Granny Smith would be rapt with this sublimely cider.
