THE REGION

The Black Chook Shiraz is sourced from the premium grape growing region of McLaren Vale, South Australia. A Mediterranean climate with warm, dry summers and cool, wet winters makes this region well suited to growing high quality Shiraz grapes.

WINEMAKING

The Shiraz grapes were co-fermented with a small amount of viognier which adds a vibrant perfumed aroma, stabilizes the deep, rich colour and gives the wine fine, supple tannins. Each vineyard parcel was vinified and matured separately and oak was selected to best suit and express the nuances of each vineyard block. The final wine was blended after 12 months of oak maturation.

THE WINE

Fresh red cherry and mixed berries are complemented by delicate florals and a touch of vanilla. The palate is bright and generous, packed with juicy fruit and soft tannins that carry through to a smooth finish. Approachable, flavourful and made to be enjoyed — outstanding value.
